GAS MADE BEFORE THESE KIDS WERE BORN

Gear gas causes panic. It's like turning on all the pain receptors in your face. Your nose and mouth start oozing snot-- not a little-- your whole face is pouring liquid. The more you breathe, the more you feel like you can't breathe. It chokes you. It's a terrifying feeling, like there's not enough air. It makes your stomach cramp. It makes you vomit. Sometimes for days after your stomach is upset and you can't draw a full breath. The scent follows you. You smell it everywhere.
